UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

In re R. Susan Woods
Debtor

Related Bankruptcy Case: 18-30549
Chapter 7
Judge Elizabeth D. Katz

R. Susan Woods
Plaintiff

Adversary Proceeding: 19-03010

vs.

Joseph B. Collins, Trustee
Defendant

REQUEST FOR an ENLARGEMENT OF TIME to PROSECUTE THE ADVERSARY PROCEEDING or OTHERWISE WITHDRAW IT

Plaintiff Woods has been seriously ill, bed ridden from March 6, 2019 through mid April, 2019, due to her cancer diagnosis, and since that time has been only marginally functional and therefore not able to represent herself with the necessary due diligence required. Doctors notes are attached to related motions for verification. As such, her competency, both mental and physical, has been significantly compromised. Ms. Woods has been an incompetent person up to and including the filing deadlines in this matter. Her recovery has been incremental since that time.

Defendant Woods did not file this Adversary Proceeding on her own behalf, and questions the efficacy of it.

Ms. Woods intent to defend her estate to the best of her ability has been made clear by her motions for general continuances dated March 12 and March 28, 2019, which were granted by this Honorable Court.

Wherefore, Defendant Woods requests until one month from now, until July 5, 2019, to prosecute her case or otherwise withdraw her claim in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

R. Susan Woods
pro se, until further notice
